

(May 26th, 2017- By Caleb Slouha) The beautiful weather brought a great crowd and plenty of cars out to the track Friday night. Eighty-one cars from several different states for the Hy-Vee Racing Series', as well as the Big 8 Late Model Series.

In the Miller Time Hornets, Michael Coulbourn and Curt Gibbs led the field to the green, but Drew Nickell quickly made it three-wide on the first lap. Coulbourn and Gibbs made contact in turn four shortly after bringing out the caution. Lucas Foster was able to get all the way to the bumper of Nickell, but could not make it any further, and Nickell would win his second race of the season.

Second generation driver Logan Clausen led the opening half of the Anderson Automotive Hobby Stocks, but could not hold off Kurt Bohnsack and Jim Hanson as they patiently made their way through the field. Bohnsack was the first to get around Clausen with 12 to go, but Hanson used lapped traffic with 4 to go to take the lead and win his second race of the year.

Aaron Moyer quietly dominated the Dublin City Pub Inex Legends in what was a competitive race. Sammy Smith grabbed the lead from Todd Ness with 21 to go, but was overtaken by Moyer one lap later. Moyer held off locals Austin Slabaugh and Smith to win.

Brandon Herb took the lead in the Mountain Dew Sportsmen just three laps in, and for a brief second looked like he may be able to hold off Cory Houdek, racing side-by-side with him for four laps. Houdek made a move to the outside and took the lead with 10 to go, earning his fourth win, so far sweeping the series.

The Big 8 Late Model Series came to Hawkeye Downs for the third year in a row, and gave the crowd a great show. Joe Neisius and Caleb Adrian led the 28 car field to the green, Adrian took the lead but Michael Bilderback, Griffin McGrath, and Brody Willett were not far behind. Willett and Adrian battled fiercely side by side for several laps, before the two made contact sending Adrian up into the wall. The two drivers then played cat and mouse around the track for several laps, and Adrian spun Willett under caution. Joe Neisius won the race after patiently waiting behind the two, and holding off McGrath and Bilderback. The more detailed story can be found at www.big8series.com

Racing continues from Hawkeye Downs next week with FOX Free Night, as well as the A.I.R.S Vintage Cars, and the second Carpetland USA Floor-It Dash. Gates open at 6:30pm.
